MISSIONARIES TO WALES

Dear Friends,

They say the beginning of deputation is a slow process, but soon, it picks up some momentum. That has certainly been the case for us. With Jason working part-time and having more time to reach out to pastors, we've seen an increase in both the meetings we've booked and our monthly support. Praise the Lord! We're now at about 10% of our needed funds.

In March, we have meetings scheduled in South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama, so it's sure to be another busy month. We'll also be attending the Alumni Meetings at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Greenville, SC. It will be a blessing to see familiar faces and to worship with fellow alumni and others from across the country.

The past month brought a few trials such as vehicle troubles and unexpected expenses, but the Lord took care of every need and blessed us in miraculous ways. He led us to churches that took great care of us with love offerings, support, and more. He also burdened the hearts of individuals who sent love gifts our way and have prayed for us each day of our journey. God is faithful, and He proves that to us more and more as we continue to serve Him.

Thank you for your love, prayers, and financial support. You are a blessing, and we appreciate your willingness to help us reach the people of Wales for the cause of Christ.

In Christ's Hand,
Jason and Dana
