August 2018

As we had planned, we spent the entire month of July in the states of Iowa and South Dakota. We labored with one church in Iowa and five churches in South Dakota. The Lord protected us in traveling to and from each church, and He also blessed in each service. We are very thankful for those who enabled us to labor with each of these churches.

We began the month in Onawa, IA, with Pastor Matt Sperling and Onawa Bible Baptist Church. We enjoyed the services on Sunday and Thursday and the fellowship throughout the week. I preached during the Thursday night service, and Tamatha and the children sang on Sunday and Thursday. The Sperlings and the church were very gracious to us throughout the week. They fed us well and gave us a good offering. Tamatha was especially excited when they gave her some grocery money and took her to Sam's Club to shop. It was a fantastic week with Matt, Esther, all of the children, and all of the church people.

Our first stop in South Dakota was with Pastor Jesse Hailey at Elk Point Baptist Church. I preached on Sunday and Wednesday, and Tamatha and the children sang as well. We enjoyed being with the Haileys again and talked about our time with them over the years. We first met them in Pierre in 2007. Over the years, the children have grown up. Their oldest daughter, Hannah, is now engaged. Their second daughter, Katelyn, finished high school this year. Our oldest, William, finished this year, and Nowelle is finishing next year. Next year, Hannah will be married and the others will be in college or preparing to go to college. This was our last year to all be together, and the children made the most of it by spending as much time together as they could. We appreciate Jesse, Melanie, their children and the people of Elk Point Baptist Church. Things will be different next year, but we look forward to laboring with them again.

From Elk Point, we drove to Mobridge in the northern part of the state to be with Pastor David Warner and New Freedom Baptist Church. We had not been there in a couple of years, so we were excited to be back. I preached the morning and afternoon services and Tamatha and the children sang. We enjoyed the services and the fellowship before, between, and after the services. We had a great time with Pastor and Mrs. Warner, their son David and his family, and all of the people at New Freedom.

From Mobridge, we drove south to spend the week in Plankinton. This would allow us to attend church on Wednesday in Mitchell. I had preached in Mitchell several years ago, but that church closed. Pastor Carroll Torberson has pastored Grace Baptist Church in Mitchell for over 25 years, but we have been so busy over the years that we have never met him. This year we finally did. We introduced ourselves before the service. After singing and prayer time, Bro. Torberson asked if I wanted to preach for the remainder of the hour. Of course, I said, "Yes." I had Tamatha and the children sing, and then I introduced ourselves and our ministry before preaching. We are so glad we were finally able to meet Bro. Torberson, his wife, and be in their service.

As we left Plankinton, the children were excited about heading to Faulkton. There we would put up the tent and have Vacation Bible School in the mornings and tent revival services at night. We enjoyed a great week with the Benji Beaudoin family. The VBS and tent revival services were wonderful as well as the fellowship throughout the week.

Our last stop of the month was with Pastor Chris Cote and Victory Baptist Church in Pukwana. Pastor Cote had asked me last year about preaching on Faith Promise Missions. I preached messages on several aspects of missions before closing out Wednesday's service with a message on Mary and her giving of the alabaster box. It was a great week. Tamatha and the children sang throughout the week. We enjoyed the fellowship at the church and also with the Cote family each night before the service. We are looking forward to hearing what the Lord will do through Victory Baptist Church in Pukwana, SD.

Praises

1) Great services in each church; 2) Provision through our faithful monthly supporters and the offerings from each church and in the mail; 3) Protection in traveling.

Prayer Needs

1) Power in preaching; 2) Provision of needs—continue to pray about our regular, monthly needs and also some extra to pay off some past repair and medical bills; 3) Protection on the highway; 4) Summer is gone; by the time you receive this, we will have begun the new school year; pray the Lord will give us a great year.

Preaching the Gospel,

Paul, Tamatha, William, Nowelle, Westery Peter, and Silas
