Prayer Letter Update:

Well, Logan is here! He arrived May 16th without complication and is doing well. He already has his passport! Getting him to cooperate and get his picture taken was a challenge, let me tell you. Soon, he will get his shots needed before going to Taiwan.

We have other exciting news - we just have two more meetings left and plane tickets are purchased for Taiwan!! Our departure date is August 15th. The next prayer letter you get from us will be from the field of Taiwan. We are so excited, it's getting real!! The process for getting our ARC's (Alien Residency Certificate) has begun. It is a two stage process. Stateside, we must secure Residency Visas, which of course entails a gamut of documents to send in. The Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Seattle then makes certified copies and Chinese Translations, then hopefully approves and attaches our visas in our actual passports. We have to mail those in too. Once we land in Taiwan, we have 15 days to report to a specific office and change those visas to ARC's, meaning another round of requirements and documentation, etc. Hopefully we are approved. These ARC's give benefits such as the legal right to open a bank account, pay taxes (yay), get a license, have healthcare and get a post office box among other things.

On the left I have broken down prayer requests. Why I didn't do this sooner I don't know, but I saw my brother-in-law's prayer letter and he did something like this and I think it's a great idea. One other thing I will mention is that my parents are returning for furlough in September. That gives us about a month to get settled in before they leave. Before they do, please pray that we can find a place to live and get a schedule going while we help out with their work in Daliao. As always, thank you for your prayers and support!

Expecting Great Things,

Nathaneil and Kelsie and Logan Cullers

Heeeeeeee's Logan Brock Cullers!
When he was born, he was 20.5 inches long and 8.2 pounds. Everything went smoothly and we thank the Lord for that. Here he's almost 2 months old.
